
From: Kinslow, Sara
To: McFadden, Angela
Sent: 8/1/2013 4:06:10 PM
Subject: Digest email

Hi Angela,

The digest is up on Quickr and the email format is below. Please let me know if there's anything else I can do.

Thanks and have a great weeknd,
Sara K.

News Highlights:

- - \$350K well water study proposed for Bradford County
- - House panel slams EPA over 'fracking' study methodology
- - Antitrust Probe Targets Halliburton's Fracking Business
- - Wyden suggests Washington, states could divide fracking regulation
- - Texas study shows water pollution near gas drilling
- - Bakken shale natural gas flaring tops \$100 million each month
- - DEP Issues Notice of Violation Over Smoke at MarkWest Compressor Station
- - In Dimock, opponent neither surprised nor hopeful over EPA leak
- - Hydraulic Fracturing Linked to Earthquakes: Oklahoma Lacks Response
- - Insurance issues loom over shale gas development
- - Science panel to vote on bill requiring EPA to address water pollution chances in study
- - House Panel Approves Bill Giving States Primacy in Hydraulic Fracturing Regulation
- - Scientists, industry, regulators struggle with the suspect math of natural gas leaks
- - State seeks \$1.5 million penalty against oil patch firm
- - Sierra Club sues feds over oil shale development
- - Marcellus Shale hospitals claw toward better data on gas field health issues
- - Calif. needs rules that learn from problems elsewhere -- experts
- - CONGRESS: House bill would tighten federal oversight of drilling waste
- - Fight Over Plan for Natural Gas Port Off Long Island

Check out Face the Play for more links to news articles, including articles collected by EPA's Region 6 and Region 8 libraries.

Sara Kinslow
US EPA Region 3
1650 Arch St.
Philadelphia, PA 19104
215-814-5577